The Noteables Chorus was formed in 1938 and has been singing for 65 years. The chorus is a member of the Lake County Extension Homemakers and the Melody Makers of Indiana. The Chorus presents both a Spring and Fall Concert for the local community and sings with the Melody Makers choruses from all over the state at the Festival Day Concert in the Indianapolis area for the Indiana Homemakers Annual Conference. The Noteables has also sung for Gospelfest in Crown Point and presents sing outs to local senior living facilities.

The chorus accepts members in August and January for their concert seasons. Women are eligible to join at these times. There is no audition, but applicants are expected to be able to sing and come with choir or chorus singing experience.

If you need any further information, please feel free to contact me. Anna Rominger, President. Contact information is 219-769-0304 or email at arominge@iun.edu.
